Hi, Neighbor!

Thank you!

A Day of “WORKSHIP”

On Sunday, May 5th, Mission Council is planning a day of “Workship”. We will meet at 1:00 PM in the APC parking lot and caravan down to West Kensington Ministry for a few hours of fix-up, clean-up and toss-out fun. After our “work” is done, we are invited to stay for their 4:00 PM worship service followed by a simple supper for all in attendance. This is Cinco di Mayo, so it should be a very uplifting service!

Their worship meeting room at WKM is limited in space, so we are limited to 15 APC members who can participate in this unique day of service. Anyone interested should contact Don Brooks at dmkabrooks@comcast.net.

Volunteers Needed for food and clothes distribution at WKM!

WE LOVE & VALUE OUR COMMUNITY!

On Tuesday and Thursday mornings WKM provides food and clothes to our neighbors

Come help us!

Join us as a volunteer supervisor for our food and clothes distribution

We are seeking enthusiastic individuals with a willingness to assist

Details:

- What: Food and clothes distribution
- When: Tuesdays and Thursdays 9-10:30 am
- Location: West Kensington Ministry, 2140 N Hancock Street, Philadelphia, PA 19122

Volunteer Responsibilities:

- Sort out items as clothing, shoes, kitchen supplies, etc
- Place them on tables either inside the narthex or right outside the church gates, weather permitting.
- Restock as the day goes on, and re-store what is not taken
- Ensure a safe and enjoyable environment for all participants.

Flexible Commitment:

You don't have to commit to both days. Even volunteering for just one hour at a time would be greatly appreciated. To volunteer or for more information, please contact Rev. Adan at 267-879-6310

Come out and support WKM and the community!

Is your world too noisy? You might be interested in exploring and then joining a group at APC called "Circles of Trust." All are welcome!

The format of a Circle is simple and beautiful. For one hour we focus on quiet reading, meditation, and prayer. Small groups (4-8 people) will meet monthly on a day and time that is most convenient for the group. We envision forming both daytime and evening groups.

If you'd like to learn more about this calming and quiet practice please join us for a brief meeting in the Chapel on Sunday, April 28, after the 10 am service.

Questions? Speak to Donna Dykstra (dkdykstra@verizon.net) at 201-390-7069 or Tia McCoun (tmccoun@apcusa.org) at 215-887-4530.

6th Annual West Kensington Ministry (WKM) Golf Outing
Five Ponds Golf Club, Warminster
Monday, May 13, 9:45 a.m. Shot Gun Start
Donation: $180 per player

Everyday life at WKM involves faith and faith in action. Some of that activity includes Sunday worship, Bible study, baptisms, town hall meetings, voter registration, workshops on gun violence, community safety, and programs on health and nutrition. WKM actively partners with the Police District, Gov. Josh Shapiro's office, and DA Larry Krasner's office to offer panel discussions on topics of social justice and violence prevention. WKM continues to offer food distribution to those in need, a ceramics studio for youth and adults, and electrician classes. WKM meets its neighbors right where they are in life and responds in real time to the constant cycle of change.

Your participation in or donations to the golf outing provides critical financial support to our ministry and its programs. For more information, please contact Chad Pilling at plingcb@gmail.com.

The next book is Destiny of the Republic: A Tale of Madness, Medicine and the Murder of a President by Candice Millard. This book is readily available within the Montgomery County Libraries.

Our next meeting is Thursday, May 16th at 7pm in the Parlor.
